ABOUT US

DISCOVER

Apparel

Wear your values without compromising on style and quality. In addition to giving unwanted materials a new lease on life, the apparel brands we curate are ethical, local businesses with people + planet at their core.

Books

Cozy up with a book from our curated collection exploring low-waste living. These titles will deepen your appreciation of living sustainably regardless of where you are on your journey. Did we mention books make the perfect gift, too?

Food

Hungry? This section is for you. Upcycled food repurposes leftover ingredients from producing one food or beverage, transforming them into another delicious nibble! Who knew you could eat your way to a less wasteful future?

Homeware

Adorn your home with purposeful and aesthetic upcycled objects from British brands. These products design out waste by designing with it, bringing us closer to a circular economy.

Skincare & Haircare

Take time for self care with our carefully curated range of skincare and haircare products that divert waste from landfill. From shampoo bars to serums, there is something here for everyone.
